Holdun Family Office Appoints Senior Vice-President

Growing Wealth Management Company Strengthens Its Team

NEW PROVIDENCE, BAHAMAS – September 19th, 2016 – Holdun Family Office is pleased to announce that Frank Goncalves has joined the firm to manage and further develop their growing portfolio of international clients. Frank Goncalves brings with him a wealth of industry knowledge and experience. Having spent the last ten years as Vice President of Wealth Management at Credit Suisse AG, Nassau Branch, where he was instrumental in increasing assets under management ten-fold, Mr. Goncalves specialized in serving the needs of Ultra High Net Worth Clients. Joining the Holdun Family as they soon move into their new offices at the Albany Financial Center, Frank can continue his valuable work and success.

Frank joins Holdun Family Office as Senior Vice-President to its Bahamas operations to continue Holdun's long-time tradition in providing personalized client service to families and businesses. Frank comments, "I am excited to be a part of Holdun Family Office and look forward to working with the team to continue to develop their family tradition of managing their money alongside their clients' money. I am fortunate to be joining such a respected company that prides itself on their interests being aligned with those of their clients."

Brendan Dunn, Chief Executive Officer said, "Frank's wealth of experience and industry knowledge has made him a key addition to our Family Office. We welcome him to our family and believe his appointment to be a reflection of our commitment to being a leader in our industry. Our dedication to our clients led us to look for an addition to our team...someone who would fit the role of serving the needs of High Net Worth Clients while respecting our family tradition and we are very fortunate to have found someone of Frank's caliber to fulfill this role. I am confident that Frank will play a key role in providing and implementing high quality service and solutions for our clients."
